

American Red Cross

MGP partners with the American Red Cross in responding to emergencies at local, regional and national levels. Employees, as well as the Company in total, consistently provide support to the Red Cross to aid victims of natural disasters and other unfavorable events brought on by a variety of causes. This support is provided in the form of volunteer employee assistance, along with funding initiatives, clothing and food drives, and regularly sponsored blood drives.

